- b. Basketball Australia and its Member Organisations have an obligation to address the threat of match-fixing and the corruption that flows from it.
- c. Basketball Australia and its Member Organisations have a zero tolerance for illegal gambling and match-fixing.
- d. Basketball Australia will engage the necessary technical expertise to administer, monitor and enforce this Policy.
- e. The purpose of the National Policy on Match-Fixing is to:
 - i. Protect and maintain the integrity of Basketball Australia
 - ii. Protect against any efforts to impact improperly the result of any match or event
 - iii. Establish a uniform rule and consistent scheme of enforcement and penalties, and
 - iv. Adhere to the National Policy on Match-Fixing in Sport as agreed by Australian Governments on 10 June 2011.

- d. Any report by a Relevant Person under this clause 4 will be dealt with confidentially by Basketball Australia unless disclosure is otherwise required or permitted under this Policy, by law, in agreements regulating betting, or if the allegation of the Prohibited Conduct is already in the public domain.
- e. A Relevant Person has a continuing obligation to report any new knowledge or suspicion regarding any conduct that may amount to Prohibited Conduct under this Policy, even if the Relevant Person's prior knowledge or suspicion has already been reported.

5. Investigations

5.1 Allegations of Prohibited Conduct

- a. Basketball Australia will establish a Hearing Panel who will have the power to investigate the alleged Prohibited Conduct and determine an appropriate sanction in accordance with this Policy, and will be required to report their findings to the CEO, Chairman and any relevant law enforcement agency.
- b. If the Board or CEO receives a report or information that a Relevant Person has allegedly breached this Policy including by engaging in actual or suspected Prohibited Conduct, the Board must, as soon as reasonably practicable refer that report or information and any documentary or other evidence that is available to it in relation to the alleged Prohibited Conduct by the Alleged Offender to the Hearing Panel.

Thereafter, such public disclosure will be by way of an official release by Basketball Australia in its sole discretion.
- c. For the avoidance of doubt, in circumstances where a finding is made by the Hearing Panel against a Relevant Person, and the Relevant Person subsequently appeals, Basketball Australia is not prohibited from making a public disclosure as set out in this clause prior to the Appeal being finalised.

- d. In circumstances where the Hearing (or Appeals) Panel finds in favour of the Relevant Person against whom allegations of Prohibited Conduct have been made, Basketball Australia may only make such public disclosure with the consent of the Relevant Person.
- e. Basketball Australia must not disclose any specific facts of an allegation of Prohibited Conduct or breach of this Policy prior to determination by a Hearing Panel. Notwithstanding this clause, however, a general description of a process that may be instigated under this policy is permissible.
- f. Where any public announcement may be considered detrimental to the wellbeing of a Relevant Person, the Board will determine the most appropriate course of action in its sole discretion based on the circumstances of the Relevant Person.
- g. All parties must maintain all information received in the course of any report, notice, hearing or appeal (other than a notice of decision by the Hearing Panel or an appeal tribunal) in relation to an allegation of conduct that is Prohibited Conduct as strictly confidential.

Annexure D — Code of Conduct

Anti Match-Fixing Code of Conduct

Preamble

Basketball Australia recognises that betting is a legitimate pursuit, however illegal or fraudulent betting is not. Fraudulent betting on sport and the associated match-fixing is an emerging and critical issue globally, for sport, the betting industry and governments alike.

Accordingly, Basketball Australia and its Member Organisations have a major obligation to address the threat of match-fixing and the corruption that flows from that.

Basketball Australia and its Member Organisations have a zero tolerance for illegal gambling and match-fixing.

Basketball Australia has developed a National Policy on Match-Fixing (Match-Fixing Policy) to:

- Protect and maintain the integrity of Basketball Australia;
- Protect against any efforts to impact improperly the result of any match;
- Establish a uniform rule and consistent scheme of enforcement and penalties; and
- Adhere to the National Policy on Match-Fixing in Sport as agreed by Australian Governments on 10 June 2011.

A copy of the Match-Fixing Policy can be obtained from Basketball Australia upon request, and is available on Basketball Australia's website.

Basketball Australia will engage necessary technical expertise to administer, monitor and enforce the Match-Fixing Policy.

1. Application

The National Policy, as amended from time to time, includes a defined list of Relevant Persons to whom this code of conduct applies.

2. Sample Code of Conduct Principles/Rules of Behaviour

This code of conduct sets out the guiding principles for all Relevant Persons on the issues surrounding the integrity of sport and betting.

Guiding principles

1. Be smart: know the rules
2. Be safe: never bet on your sport
3. Be careful: never share sensitive information
4. Be clean: never fix an event
5. Be open: tell someone if you are approached

1. Be smart: know the rules

Find out Basketball Australia's betting integrity rules (set out in the Match-Fixing Policy) prior to each season, so that you are aware of Basketball Australia's most recent position regarding betting.

If you break the rules, you will be caught and risk severe punishment including a potential lifetime ban from basketball and even being subject to a criminal investigation and prosecution.

2. Be safe: never bet on your sport

Never bet on yourself, your opponent or your sport. If you, or anyone in your entourage (coach, friend, family members etc), bet on yourself, your opponent or your sport you risk being severely sanctioned. It is best to play safe and never bet on any events within basketball including:

- Never betting or gambling on your own matches or any basketball competitions; including betting on yourself or your team to win, lose or draw as well as any of the different spot bets (such as first goal scorer, most valuable player, etc);
- Never instructing, encouraging or facilitating any other party to bet on sports you are participating in;
- Never ensuring the occurrence of a particular incident, which is the subject of a bet and for which you expect to receive or have received any reward; and
- Never giving or receiving any gift, payment or other benefit in circumstances that might reasonably be expected to bring you or basketball into disrepute.

3. Be careful: never share sensitive information

As a Relevant Person you will have access to information that is not available to the general public, such as knowing that a team mate is injured or that the coach is putting out a weakened side. This is considered sensitive, privileged or inside information. This information could be sought by people who would then use that knowledge to secure an unfair advantage to make a financial gain.

There is nothing wrong with you having sensitive information; it is what you do with it that matters. Most Relevant Persons know that they should not discuss important information with anyone outside of their club, team or coaching staff (with or without reward) where the Relevant Person might reasonably be expected to know that its disclosure could be used in relation to betting.

4. Be clean: never fix an event

Play fairly, honestly and never fix an event or part of an event. Whatever the reason, do not make any attempt to adversely influence the natural course of an event or competition, or part of an event or competition. Sporting contests must always be an honest test of skill and ability and the results must remain uncertain. Fixing an event or competition, or part of an event or competition goes against the rules and ethics of sport and when caught, you may receive a fine, suspension, lifetime ban from basketball, and/or even a criminal prosecution.

Do not put yourself at risk by following these simple principles:

- Always perform to the best of your abilities;
- Never accept to fix a match. Say no immediately. Do not let yourself be manipulated—unscrupulous individuals might try to develop a relationship with you built on favours or fears that they will then try to exploit for their benefit in possibly fixing an event. This can include the offer of gifts, money and support; and
- Seek treatment for addictions and avoid running up debts as this may be a trigger for unscrupulous individuals to target you to fix competitions. Get help before things get out of control.

5. Be open: tell someone if you are approached

If you hear something suspicious or if anyone approaches you to ask about fixing any part of a match then you must tell someone at Basketball Australia (this person is stipulated in the Match-Fixing Policy) straight away. If someone offers you money or favours for sensitive information then you should also inform the person specified above.

Any threats or suspicions of corrupt behaviour should always be reported. The police and national laws are there to protect you. Basketball Australia has developed the Match-Fixing Policy and the procedures contained in it to help.
